Too big for manufacturers to ignore

JAGGAER

It's a fact that's impossible to ignore – your cost of manufacturing depends heavily on the price of supplies. And with material costs on the rise, along with inflation, your bottom line is being impacted.

That's a problem. Because if your products become unaffordable for your customers, your business will undoubtedly suffer. Taking steps to minimize the cost of every element of your manufacturing process is crucial to your success.

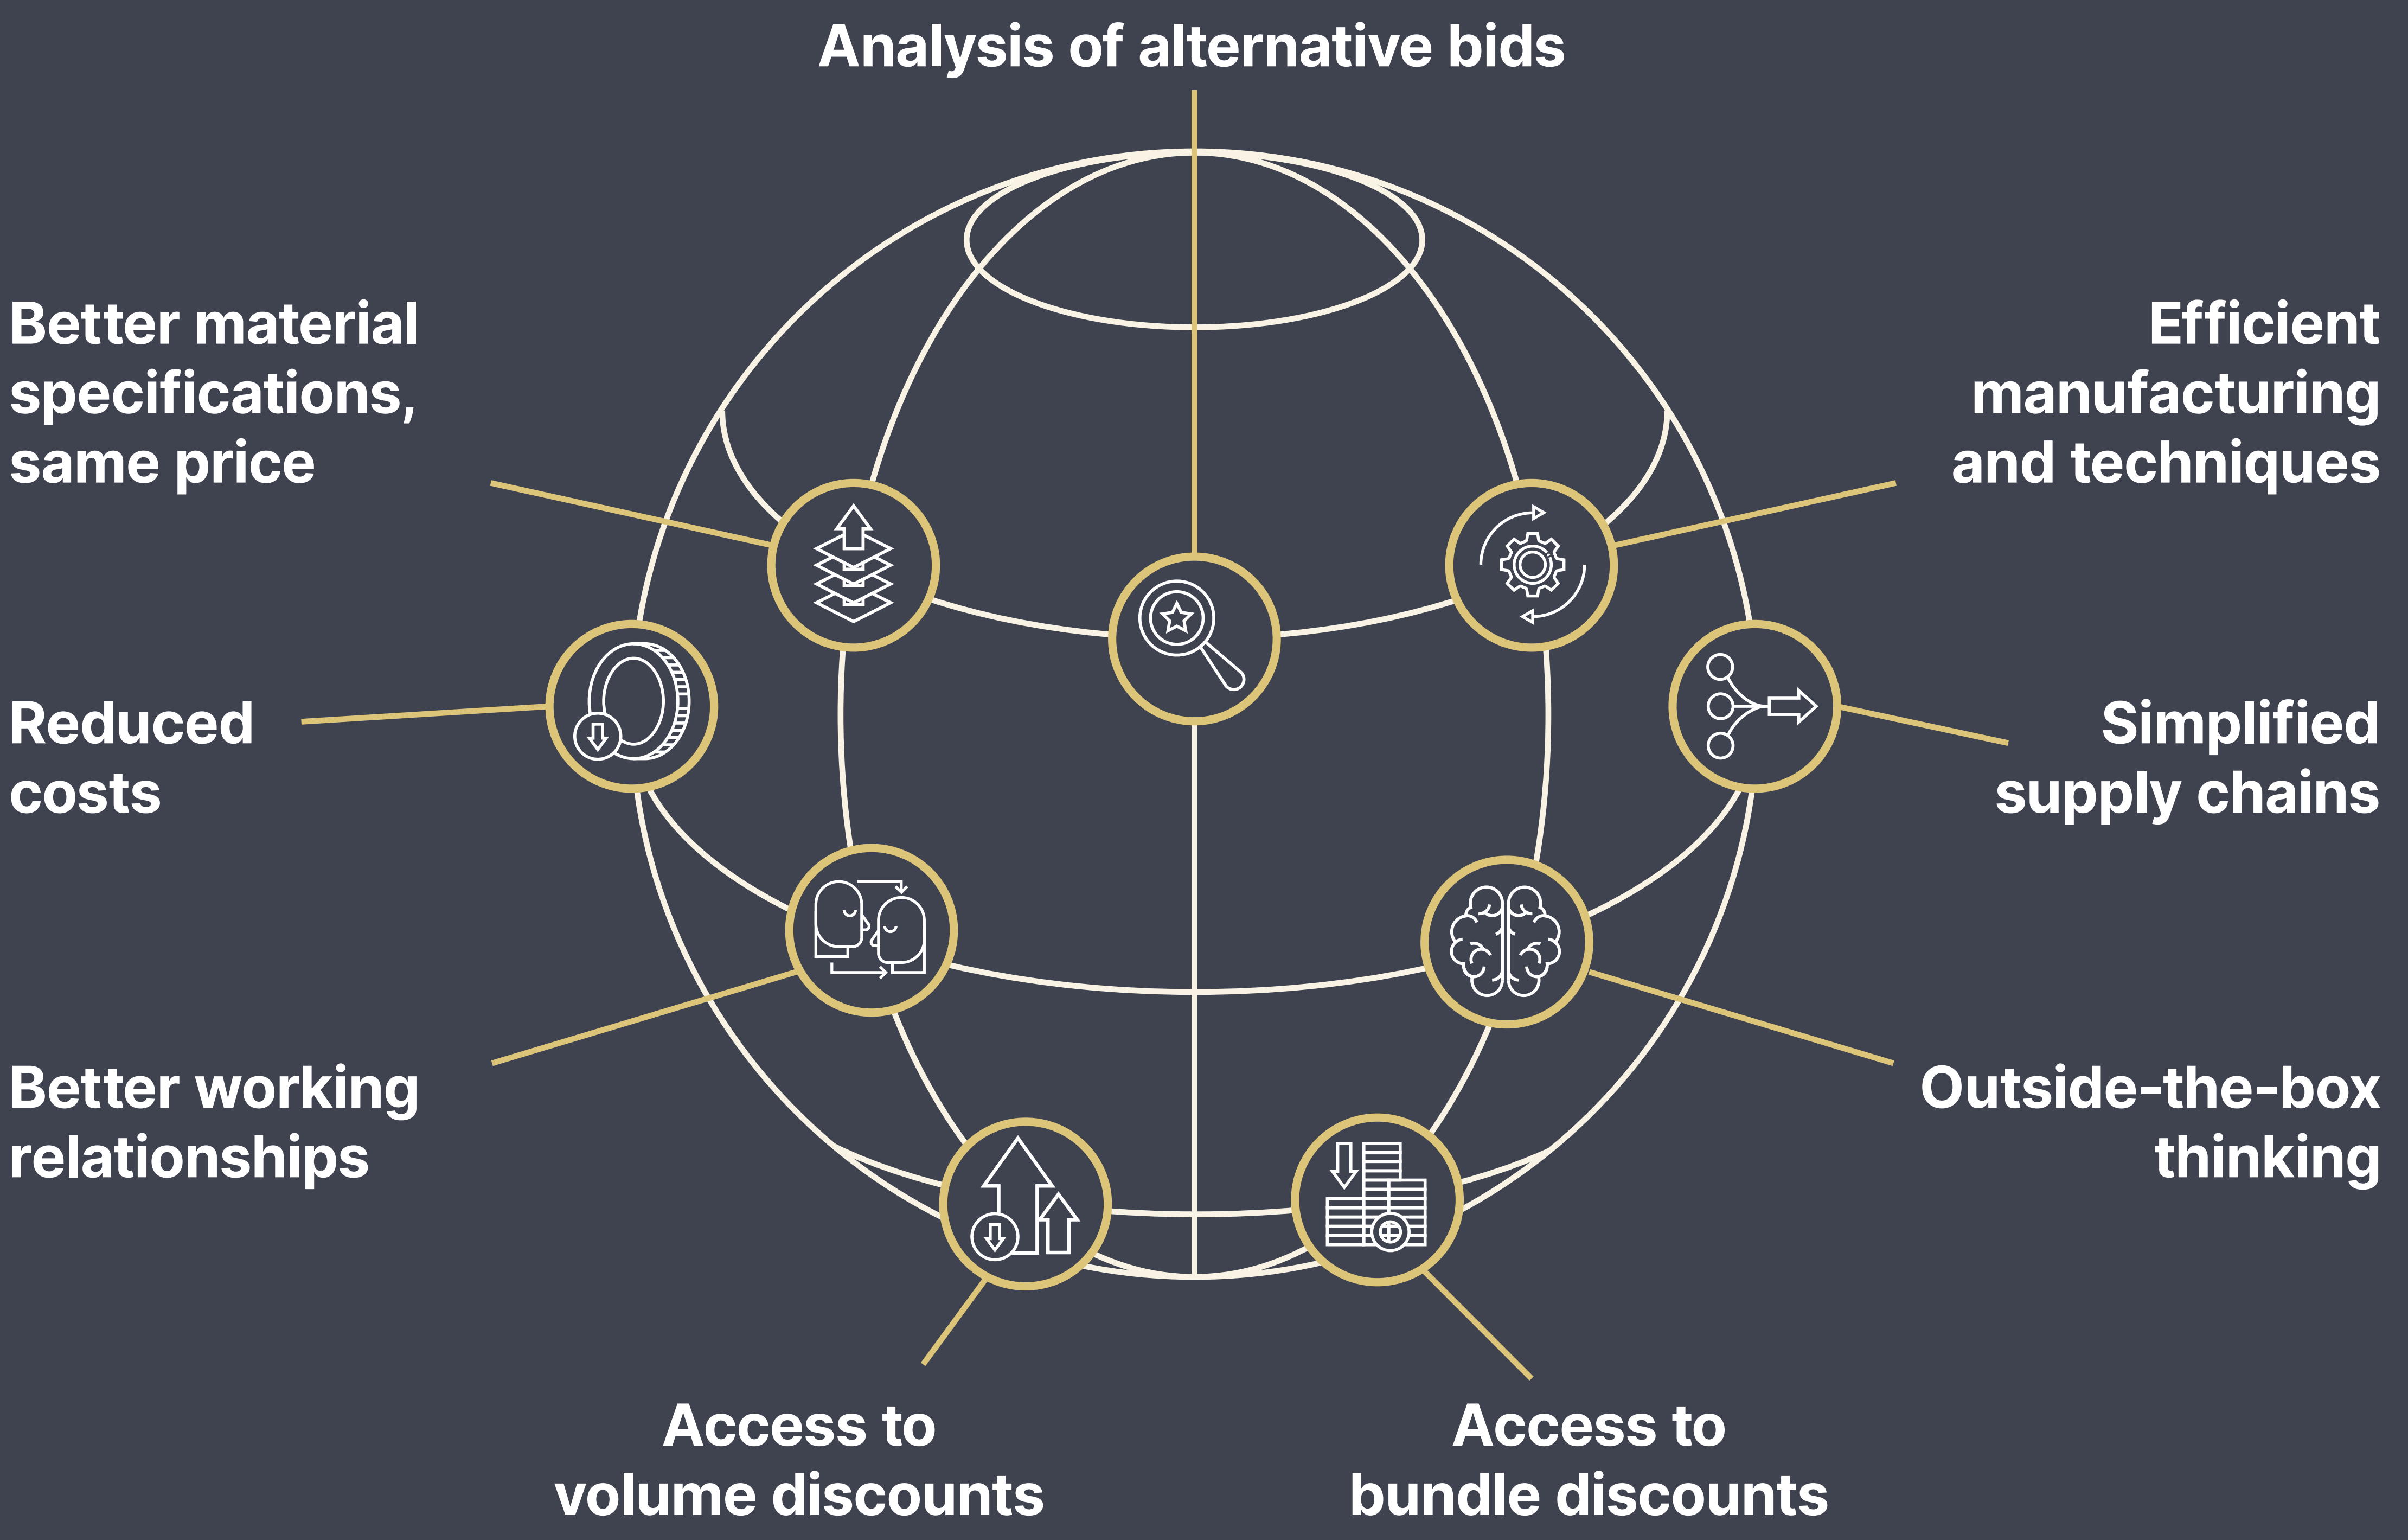

JAGGAER'S Advanced Sourcing Optimizer (ASO) can help. It's a more effective way of finding creative solutions to your supply challenges, not just 10% discounts from suppliers.

Here are some of the benefits you can enjoy.

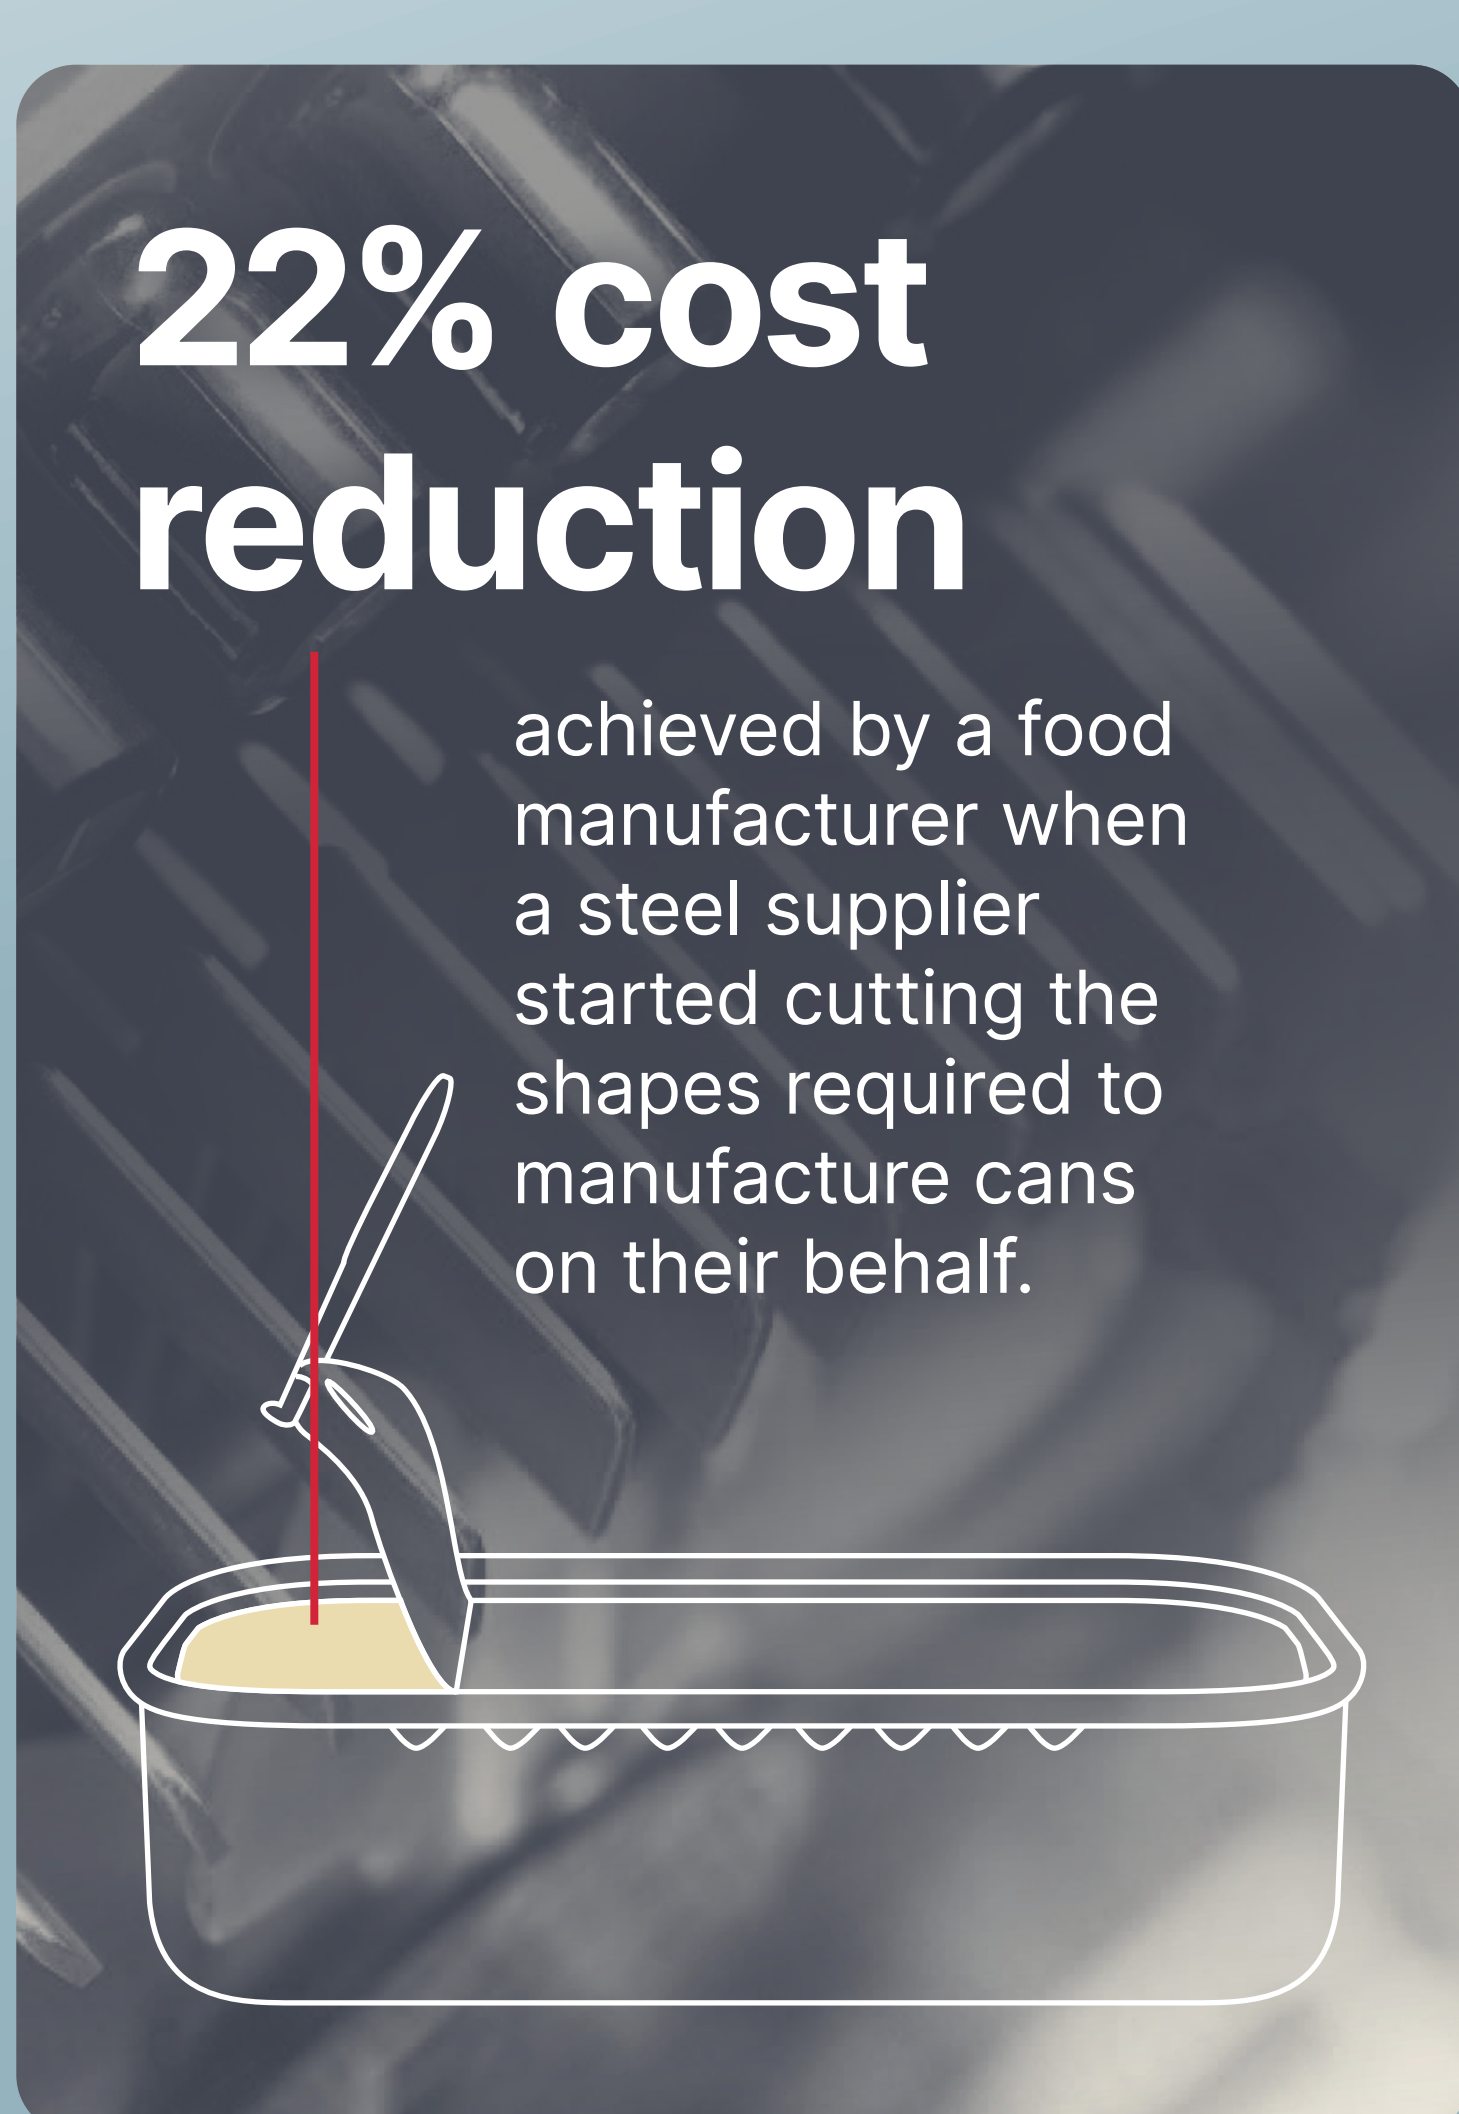

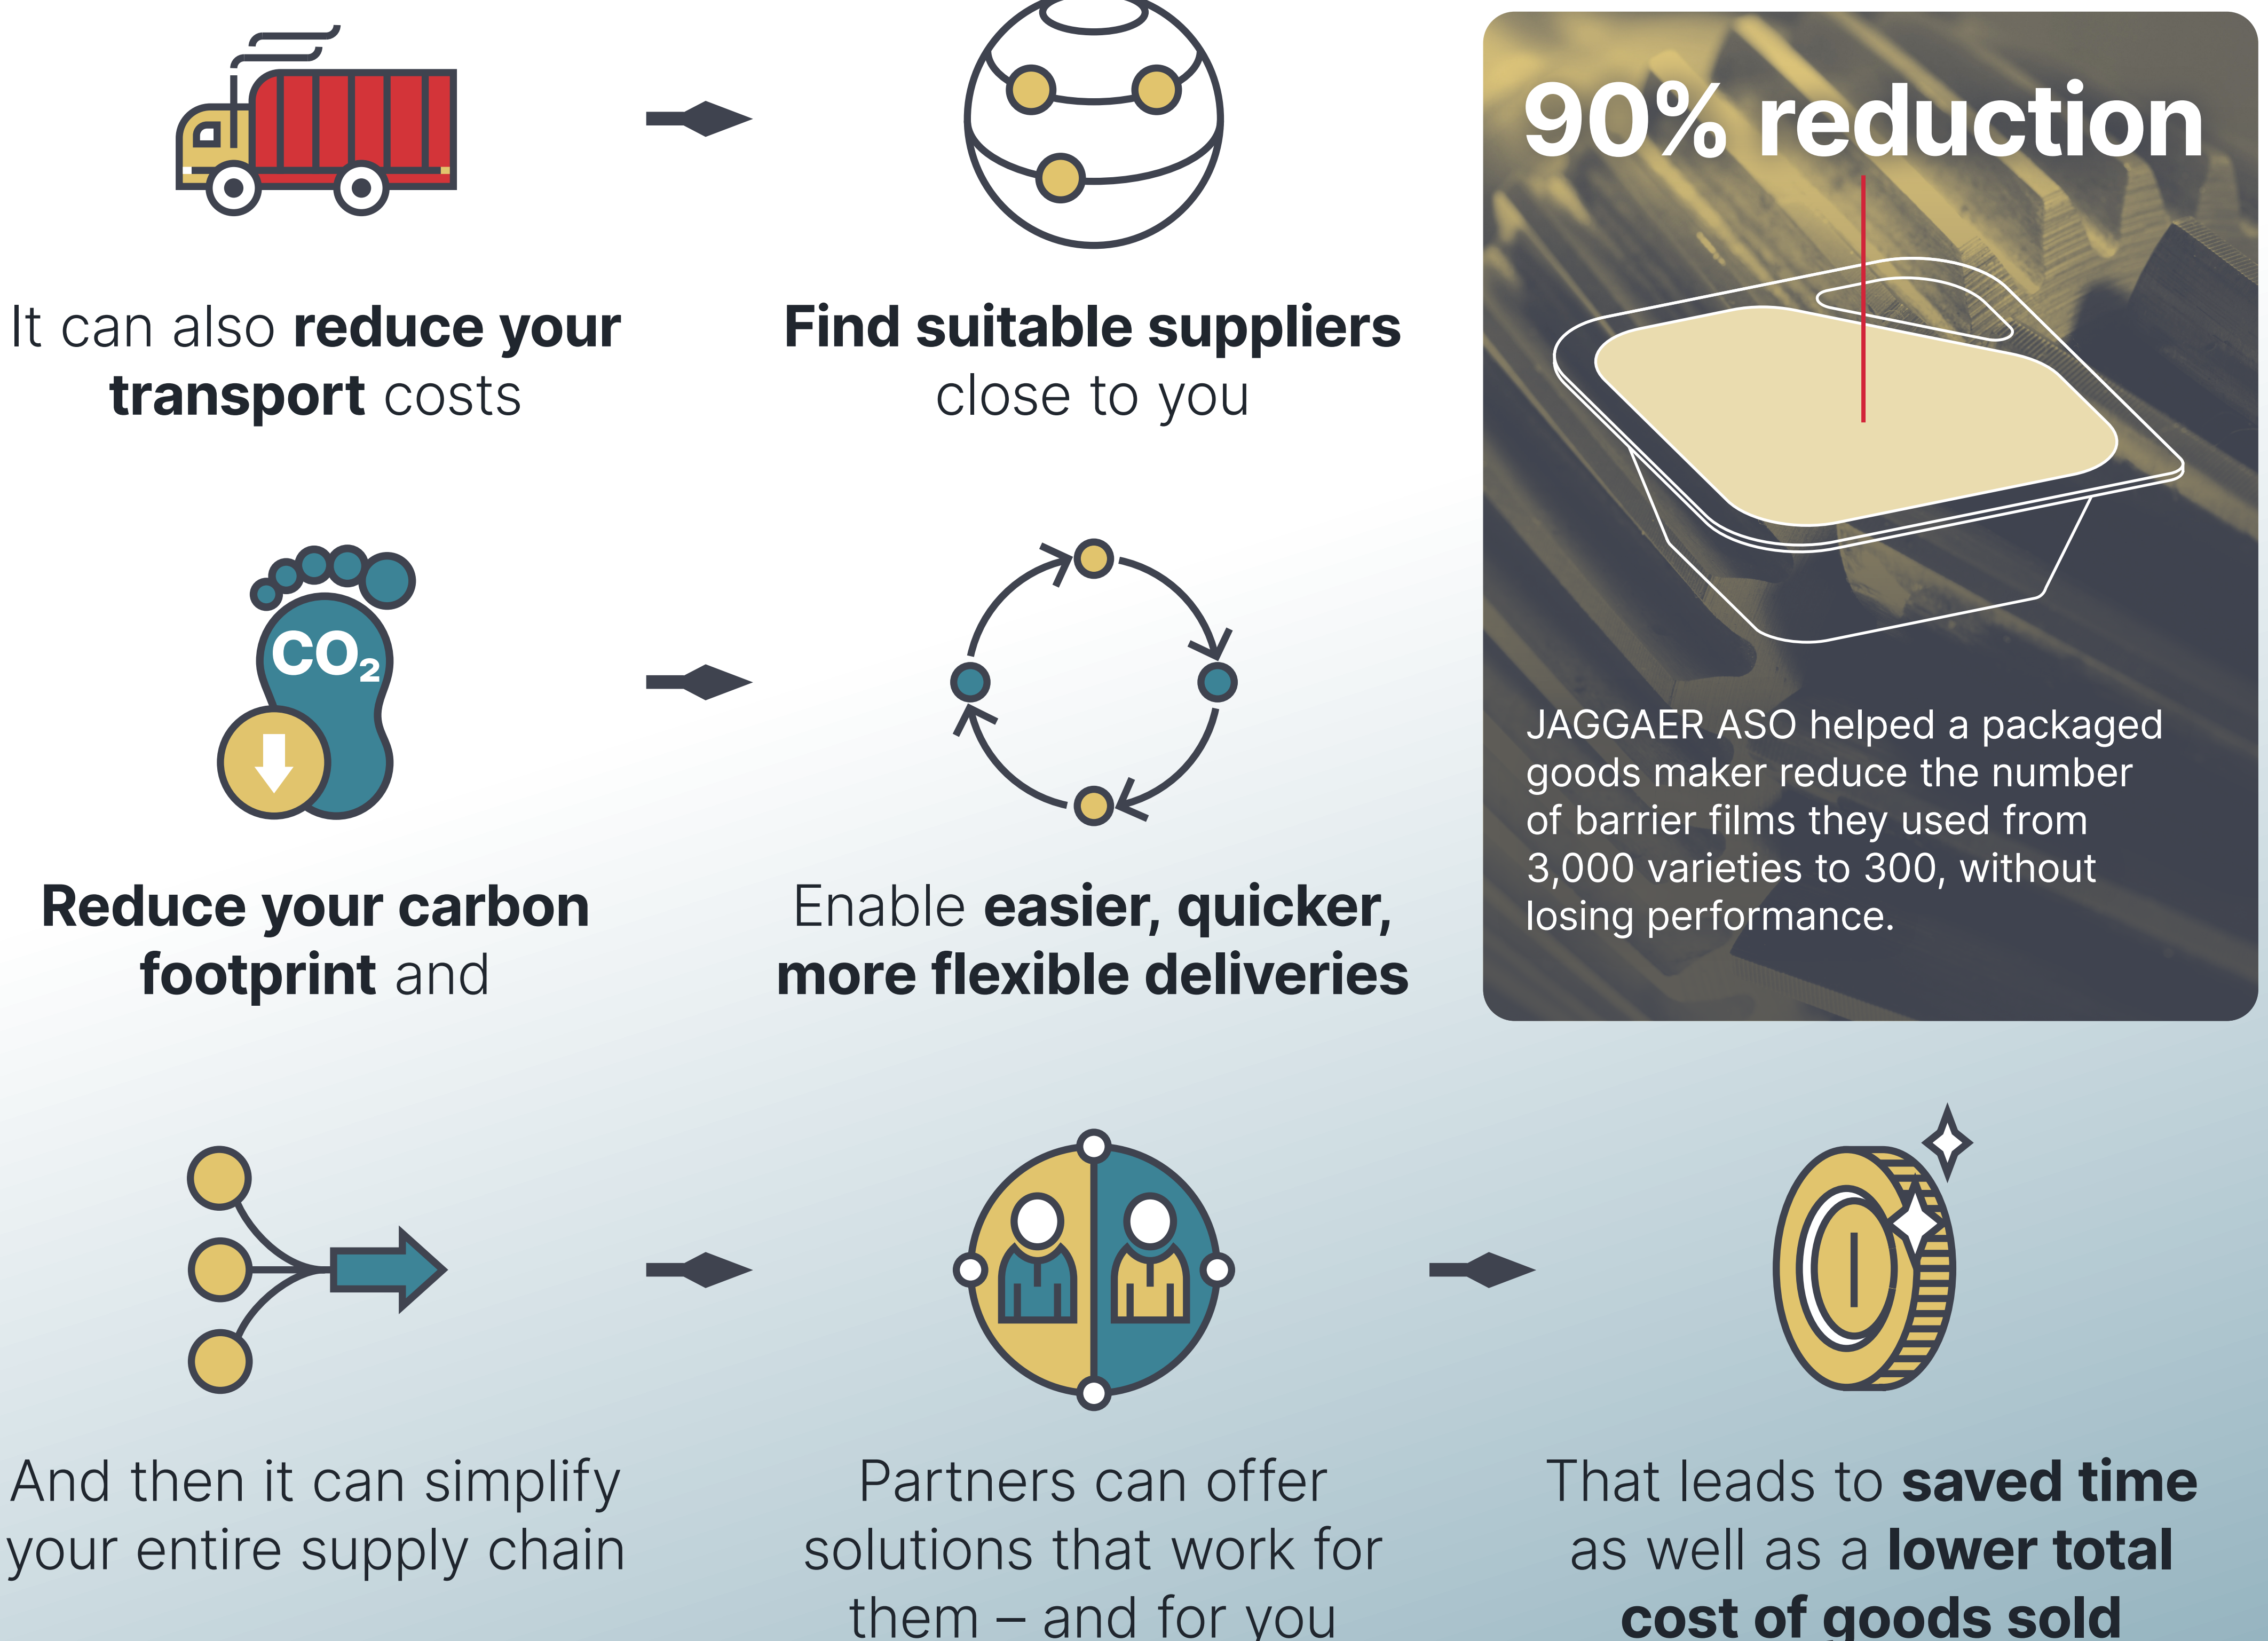

ASO – The key benefits

It's your optimization engine for greater collaboration with your suppliers and truly creative problem-solving capabilities

These elements make up something we call Expressive Bidding®

And that's just the start

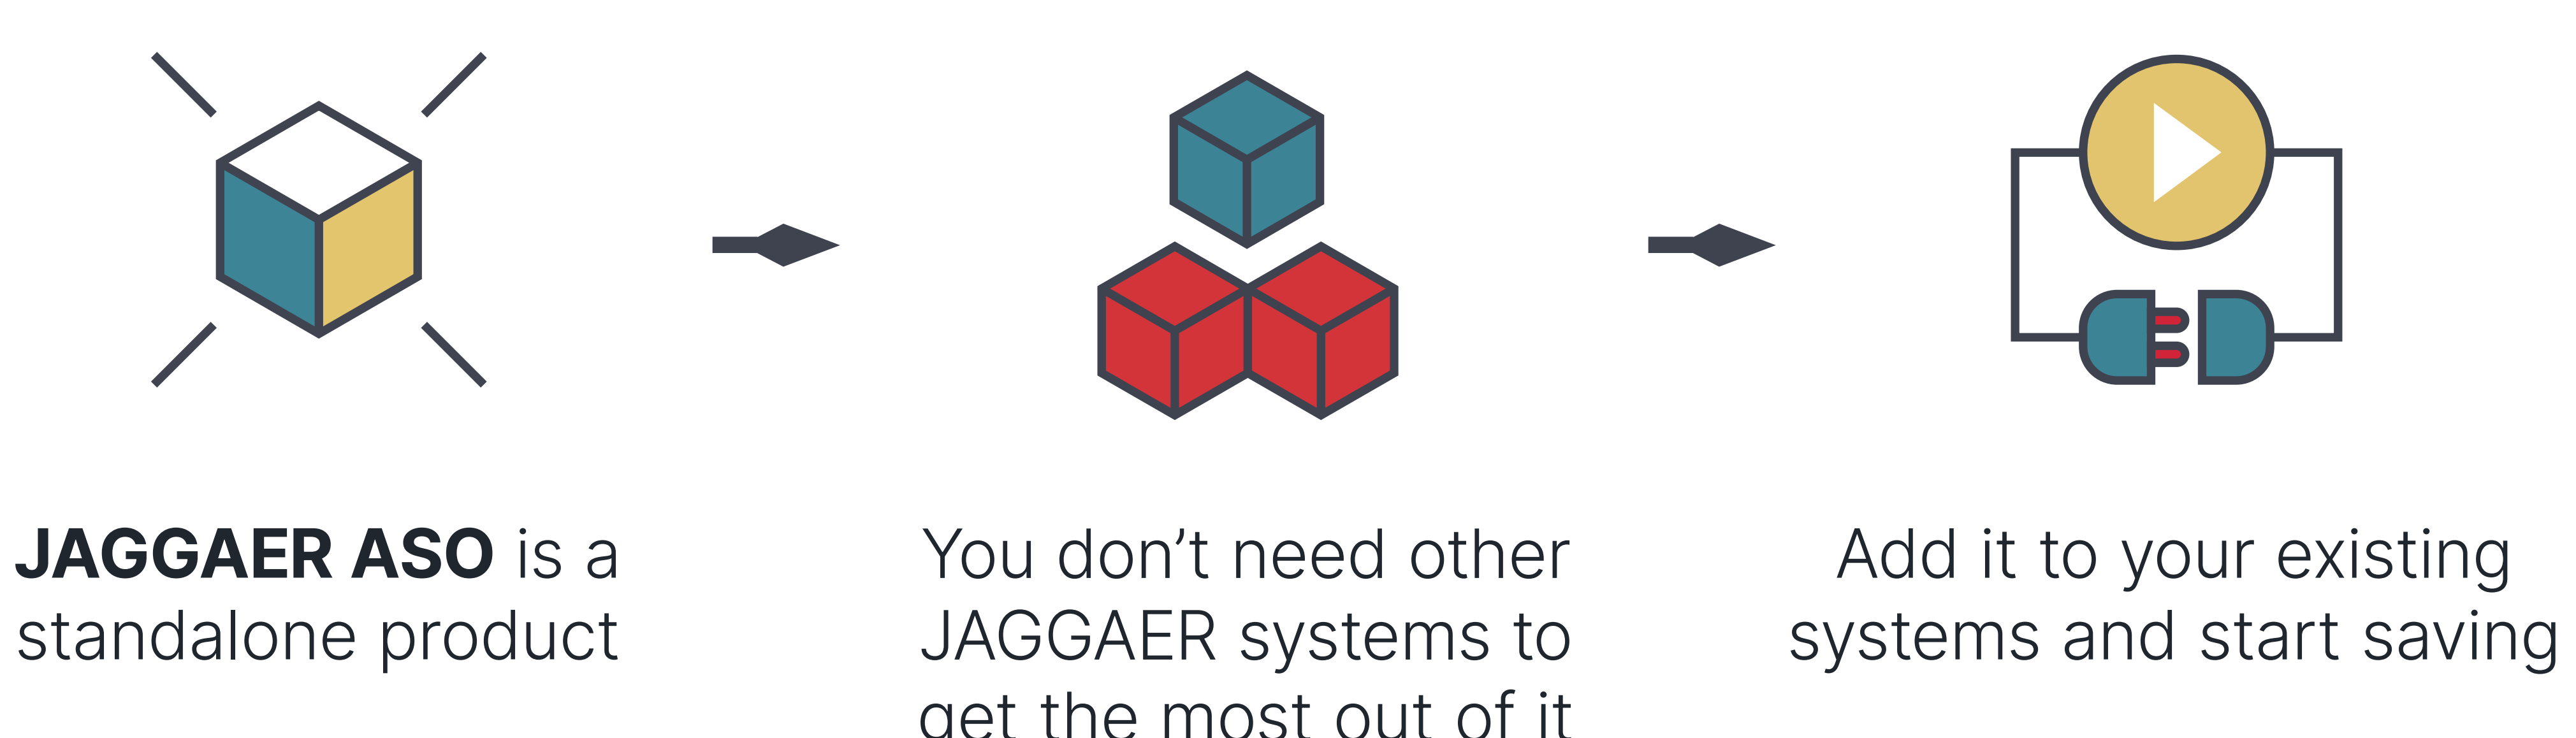

So you can build the ideal product

All while reducing the risks associated with new suppliers

And you can get started at any time

Get the right supply solutions for your business using intelligent, considered, strategic Advanced Sourcing Optimization from JAGGAER. Form stronger relationships with suppliers, find superior solutions for your needs, and build a better bottom line.
